REMARKS [REDACTED]

1. Rumanian troops were withdrawn from the border zone of the Banat and replaced by Soviet troops in early October 1949.
2. A Soviet unit headquarters, allegedly the headquarters of a tank division, was located in the former Rumanian corps headquarters building in TIMISOARA (R 16/T 91).
3. Soviet Artillery troops were located in the fortress of ARAD (R 16/U 06). The Rumanian troops withdrawn from ARAD were to be quartered in cantonment buildings newly constructed in HUNEDOARA (R 25/Q 20).
4. LIPOVA (R 16/U 34) was still occupied by Rumanian troops.

Comment:

- 25X1 The information on Soviet troops concentrating in the Banat confirms previous reports. This is the only report so far that
- 25X1 part of the Rumanian troops had been withdrawn from the Banat upon the arrival of Soviet troops. In another report [REDACTED]
- 25X1 [REDACTED] the Rumanian units from the Banat were allegedly transferred to Little Wallachia.
